

Rosemary Hughes – St John.

When it was quiet my grandmothers sometimes took me to the First Aid post and I was fascinated by the nurses and what they did and they made me a little uniform similar to their uniform and I used to sit there and watch them and roll bandages sometimes and I think that gave me the idea very early in my life that I wanted to be a nurse. And that's what I did, I eventually did.

In 1947 I joined the St John's Ambulance Brigade and I was in the St John's until I went nursing at 17½ and it gave me a great start to my nursing career.

Which division were you in?

Swansea, Swansea Division I.

And did you have any rank or...?

I was a sergeant.
